FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Outlets Sent – Statewide Media Release

Reference: Parole officer under investigation resigns

Date of Release: March 28, 2013

Subject(s):

Details: An Albuquerque Parole officer, under investigation for inappropriate contact with an offender, has resigned. The officer, who NMCD is not naming, was reassigned earlier this month when allegations surfaced that the offender and officer were having more contact than appropriate. The allegations include that the officer had taken a second job, where the offender also worked. It was also alleged that the offender and the officer were having a romantic relationship.

The Office of Professional standards was still investigating this case when the officer turned in her resignation this afternoon. We will of course update the public once we have determined if the allegations were true or not.

Please let me know if you have any questions.
